Welcome to the fourth annual Scarborough Community Multicultural Festival!

This event is a celebration of the rich diversity that makes up Scarborough and the multitude of cultural identities that make our country such a great place to live.

With film screenings, performances, pageants and more, including a citizenship ceremony, this year's festival highlights multiculturalism, while fostering an inclusive approach to citizenship. Our government is proud to support this festival, with its wide range of talent and activities.

As Minister of Canadian Heritage and Minister responsible for Multiculturalism, I would like to thank the partners, dedicated organizers and volunteers for making this festival a success. Enjoy the events!
